THE STILLWATER WALK-A-THON IS TOMORROW!!

Tomorrow is the big day for our annual Walk-a-Thon! Get those shoes shined and time to start walking!

To get toe tokens, you must turn in your packets tomorrow with pledges (you just need to show pledges and monies can be collected for those pledges after the WAT). You will receive 1 token for every $25 worth of total pledges. Pledges may be collected during spring break for the chance to be counted toward individual and classroom prizes. All monies are due back by April 14th.

Don't forget to show your colors!! Each grade is assigned a color (K-Yellow, 1-Red, 2-Green, 3-Blue, 4-Orange, 5-Black).

We need many volunteers for tomorrow to mark lap cards, hand out treats and many other things. Your help is always appreciated!

For more information, please refer to our website www.stillwaterptsa.org or contact Marsha Staley at marshastaley@hotmail.com.

SAVE THE DATE

May 27th, 2010 for the Stillwater PTSA Safety Fair

Planning is underway for an all-day Safety Fair at Stillwater. We are currently lining up a variety of fair vendors to help prepare kids for a safe and fun summer. Volunteers will be needed on the day of the event to help move kids through the fair smoothly. To volunteer for this event, please contact either Sandy Dempsey at dempsey.sandy@gmail.com or Crystal Hill at hillcrystal@yahoo.com.

THANK YOU PTSA VOLUNTEERS!

Thank you very much to the March PTSA volunteers who came out to donate their time and enthusiasm at this month's events and activities. We give a big THANK YOU and hand to: Stacy Walker, Theresa Sinz, and Holli Templeton for their help with the Kids Garden; Kaarin Sharmin, Michelle Grant, and Melanie Gray for their help with Class Pictures; and Serene Norris, Audra Fulton, and Amy DuBois for their continued work on the Nominating Committee. Continued thanks go to our Art Docents, Popcorn Wednesday and Kid Mail teams for their dedication each month. You all make a great difference to our kids and parents with all you do.

Thank you!!

LABELS FOR EDUCATION ONGOING
COLLECTION CONTEST

We will have the winners of the March collection after spring break. Unfortunately, we have not announced the winners of February due to the results still being retrieved off a crashed computer. So, keep your ears open in April for those results as well! Keep turning label in and make sure you put your teacher's name on the baggie so the class gets the credit.

STILLWATER VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH

Congratulations to the Stillwater Volunteer of the Month for March: Sue Davenport, nominated by Mrs. Dice. Sue is recognized for her amazing volunteer efforts in the classroom and her great contribution to Stillwater PTSA. Sue's great attitude, consistent reliability, role as an art docent and event planner make her an outstanding volunteer. "Sue is always willing to give up her own time for the good of the students and overall well being of Stillwater, always asking 'What can I do to help?' It is no wonder that they all love her!" Sue, the praise goes on! Thank you Sue for all the positive contributions you bring to Mrs. Dices classroom and PTSA. Congratulations Sue!

PTSA VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

We need your help with the upcoming Walk-a-Thon on April 1st, Skate Night on April 14th, and Staff Appreciation Week from May 3rd through May 7th. For the Walk-a-Thon, come and cheer on your child and help mark Lap Cards. For Skate night, we need two volunteers from 5:50 to 7:30 p.m. to take the entrance fee. For Staff Appreciation Week, we are looking for parents to provide dishes for meals during the week. Please contact LauraTisdale@hotmail.com or call her at 425-788-1535 to volunteer for these events. Hope to hear from you!

TARGETING DIVERSE LEARNING NEEDS

Riverview Special-Ed Families Meeting Announcement
Thursday, April 15th, 2010 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.
Special Care Agency Office
4121 McKinley Street, Carnation

The Riverview Special-Ed Families Network is hosting guest speakers Dr. Ken Heikkila, Director of Special Services for the Riverview School District, and Tom Powers PhD of the Brooks Powers Group to discuss strategies used in identifying and targeting the diverse learning needs of students. This meeting is open to the public. Please refrain from bringing young children to this meeting as childcare will not be provided. For more information, please visit <http://riverviewspecialedfamilies.ning.com> or email Sandy Dempsey, your Special Education Advocacy Chair, at dempsey.sandy@gmail.com.

Please note: Due to speaker availability, this topic that was previously scheduled for our May meeting, but it will now be covered in April.

Note: The Riverview Special-Ed Families Network is a parent initiative to develop a forum for parents of school aged children with disabilities to support one another and to learn together. The Riverview School District is supportive of parent efforts for connecting families of children with disabilities; however, the Riverview School District is not organizing these activities.
